ORDER

The court is in receipt of Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Full Disclosure from Successor Trustee, filed January 15, 2008 (doc. no. 45) and Plaintiff's Motion for Bankruptcy Trustee to Show Cause, filed January 15, 2008 (doc. no. 47).

On December 4, 2006, plaintiffs filed this action to remove plaintiff, Floyd Seibert, as trustee and to appoint a successor trustee of the Central Home Care Services, Inc. and Affiliates 401(k) Plan ("the Pension Plan"). On April 4, 2007, the court entered an order removing plaintiff, Floyd Seibert, from any positions he held with respect to the Pension Plan and appointing Jeanne Bryant of Receivership Management, Inc. as the successor fiduciary to the Pension Plan. In its April 4, 2007 order, the court retained jurisdiction over the parties as may be necessary for enforcement of the order and stated that, subject to retention of the jurisdiction, the action was closed in its entirety.

In his motion to compel, plaintiff, Floyd Seibert, states that the successor trustee has sent out a status update to the Pension Plan participants and that adequate disclosure was not made by the successor trustee. Plaintiff requests certain issues identified by plaintiff be addressed by the court and disclosed to the Pension Plan participants.

In his motion to show cause, plaintiff, Floyd Seibert, requests the court to order the bankruptcy trustee in his Chapter 7 bankruptcy proceedings to show cause why certain property owned by plaintiff is not properly being kept up and sold to private buyers at a fair market value.

As stated, the court only retained jurisdiction over this action as may necessary to enforce the April 4, 2007 order. This action is closed, subject to the retention of jurisdiction. Although plaintiff's motion to compel involves issues relating to the successor trustee of the Pension Plan, the court concludes that it does not seek to enforce the April 4, 2007 order. The court therefore concludes that it does not have jurisdiction to address plaintiff's motion.

In regard to plaintiff's motion to show cause, the court also does not have jurisdiction to address that motion. The bankruptcy trustee was not a party to the proceedings in this court, and the court has no jurisdiction to require the bankruptcy trustee to show cause as requested by plaintiff.

Accordingly, Plaintiff's Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Full Disclosure from Successor Trustee, filed January 15, 2008 (doc. no. 45) and Plaintiff's Motion for Bankruptcy Trustee to Show Cause, filed January 15, 2008 (doc. no. 47) are DENIED.

DATED January 16, 2008.
